

Music in France

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Students will explore the art of music editing and analysis with a special emphasis on the music of France in classes led by Dr. David Dolata & Dr. Joel Galand. While in France, students will experience life in Tours, a historical Medieval university town and visit Loire Valley chateaux, including the Chateau de Chambord, where we will attend a festive evening of music, dance, acrobatics, and period costumes to celebrate the 500th anniversary of the ascension of François I to the throne. Our visit will be capped with the Bastille Day celebration at the Tours city hall, the Hôtel de Ville. The program includes a long weekend in Paris to experience the milieu in which the music we study was created and to take in the diverse contemporary Parisian musical scene. Highlights of our visit will be a tour of the Paris Garnier Opera House, Montmartre, and the Gregorian Chant Mass at Notre Dame de Paris.

LOCATION DESCRIPTION

Classes in Tours will take place in a classroom within a 12th-century tower with vaulted ceiling, stained glass windows, carved wood furniture, and original tapestries within the Centre d'Etudes Supérieures de la Renaissance (CESR) at the Université François-Rabelais de Tours—CNRS, one of Europe's leading research institutes. Additional visits by train or chartered bus will take us to Paris, the Chateau de Chenonceau and Chambord.

HOUSING

In Tours, students will be housed at "La Croix Montoire," a university dormitory in the historic center of town within easy walking distance of CESR, dining, shopping, and the train station. In Paris, students will stay at a hotel with breakfast included within walking distance of the Gare Montparnasse rail station.
